A Natural
RemedyTime was when disease was thought to be due to the direct influence of evil spirits, and exorcism and magic were invoked to cast it out.Science has taught us wisdom. The evil spirits exist still. We call them "Disease Germs," and they also must be cast out. Once lodged in the stomach or intestines, fever with its hallucinations, or biliousness with its aches and pains, is the result.ENO'S FRUIT SALTis the approved remedy for driving out disease germs. Its action is quick and thorough. It cleans the intestines, rouses the torpid liver to new life, stimulates the mucous membrane to a healthy action, and cleanses and invigorates the whole digestive tract.It may be safely taken at any time by young or old.It is very effective in the early stage of Diarrhea by removing the irritating cause.Be prepared for emergencies by always keeping a bottle in the house.

A MURDERER.AMAZING SEQUEL TO AN OPERATION.

No stranger case has ever come before a court of justice than that of Jonah Skizely, which is now being considered by the United States Court of Pardon.
Skizely committed a murder during a struggle in which he received a grave injury to the head. While in prison he underwent an operation, and when then his whole character has changed. From a "savage forbidding brute" he has become a peaceful and intelligent man.

The theory is put forward that it was the injury to his head which changed his nature and caused him to commit the murder. A full investigation has been ordered by the Court of Pardon, and it is possible that he may be granted a full pardon and set at liberty.

THE STORY OF THE CASE.
The story of the amazing case is best told in the report of the Investigating Committee, which is published by the Philadelphia Record, and is as follows:

The case of Jonah Skizely, who is serving a sentence of thirty years from October 10, 1911, for murder, is one of extraordinary interest. This man is a large Hungarian of remarkably powerful physique, and it is reported to us that when he was brought to the State Prison he seemed little more than a giant brute, with a savage, forbidding countenance, uncouth habits, grabbing his food, spilling it over himself while eating, and, in general, "off about as low an order as is deemed possible for a human being to be."

He had received a terrible blow on the back of his head near the top, which had been inflicted, as the prison authorities understood, in the struggle during which the murder was committed. He was unable to give any account to the prison authorities of the crime, or rather he seemed to refuse to talk about it, or very much about anything else.

During nearly three years after being received at the prison he was kept under close guard, and while he seemed never to have exhibited any disposition to injure anyone, he looked and acted like such a typical brute that the authorities never felt disposed to take chances with him. During all of this time the prisoner would frequently and suddenly cry out, although he gave no other indication of having any localized pain.

HEALS PAINFUL BELIEVED.
About six or eight months ago the willing physician, Dr. Martin W. Beddard, decided to operate by removing part of the skull to see if there had been a splinter of bone driven in at the time he received the blow on the head, so that it pressed upon the brain. The operation was performed, the splinter of bone was found and removed, thus relieving the pressure, and as the patient was coming out of either the anesthetic were administered to him after fragments of the English language, which since he had come to prison, no one had ever heard him speak.

On his entirely coming out from the influence of ether and recovering, the doctor and all the prison authorities were wonderfully surprised to find that instead of the brute, fawning and obedient before the operation, the man now exhibited a highly intelligent, human, common sense, intelligent, and has since shown one of the kindest and sweetest dispositions to be found anywhere.

He was constantly helping every body, doing little things for the other prisoners, comfort and working with perfect obedience and cheerfulness on the everybody interested and surprised that have become acquainted with him. He has been nothing of his usual, but has been a model prisoner, and has been a model prisoner, and has been a model prisoner, and has been a model prisoner.

"NO MURDER WAS COMMITTED."
From the representations made by the surgeon and by the prison authorities, your committee think it was quite possible that this man may, by the blow received at the time the struggle commenced wherein a man was killed, have been at once transformed from a conscious, responsible human being into the irresponsible condition under which he has existed up to the time of the operation, and that while in that condition may have killed a man, and been tried and convicted without any one realizing his mental irresponsibility; if this is so, of course, no murder was committed, and now that the man has been restored to himself, he should receive a full pardon.

We recommend, therefore, that inquiry be made into the circumstances of the trial, and that an expert examination be made into the man's mental condition."

POLICE BRUTALITY.

Extraordinary scenes took place, according to the "Vorwärts," on evening of April 30 after a meeting of the Socialist Juvenile League in an eastern suburb of Berlin. The police did not prevent the meeting, but as soon as it ended and the audience began to disperse a cordon of police surrounded the Socialists, drove them together in one mass, and then attacked them with drawn sabres and life provers. Motor-cars crunched with police and plain-clothes detectives dashed about, attacking small groups where-over gathered. Even people totally unconnected with the meeting were thrown down and maltreated, whilst many juvenile Socialists were so seriously injured that they have been unable to go to work.

The Berlin newspaper states that Prince William of Hohenzollern will shortly go to England to bring home his daughter, who is the wife of ex-King Manuel of Portugal. Whether or not the deposed King will accompany his wife and father-in-law to Signaringen is not known.

The heirs are being sought of the late Mr. James Macmillan, a Scotch merchant of Calcutta, who died at Glen Lyon Lodge, Nairn, in September last, leaving personal estate in the United Kingdom of £7,205 10s. 7d., heritable to the value of £1,000, and estate abroad amounting to £29,900 14s. Mr. Macmillan, it is stated, left no will.

To the City Church of St. Alphege, Londonwall, the tower of which formed originally a part of the fourteenth century St. Elwyns Chapel, has just been restored, after having been lost for over thirty years, a fine copy of Bishop Jewel's work, containing sermons preached before Queen Elizabeth at Paul's Cross, the Bishop's Defense of his Apology for the Church of England, dedicated to King James I., a treatise on articles relating to the Eucharist, and a commentary on St. Paul's First and Second Epistles to the Thessalonians. The work was purchased by the parish in the year 1610.

and who are well-known in society and of several hundred foreigners associated with Japan appear in the book. Quite new utterly free from prejudice.

Many portraits are inserted. The book contains over 1,400 pages.
The price is ten shillings ($12.50) or $3 per copy.
Orders for the book should be accompanied by payment.

Subscribers for the second annual edition of "Who's Who in Japan" will be allowed a reduction of one yen.

The registered postage is 15 cents to Korea and China 40 cents and to Europe & America 70 cents or $5 each.

It is a Good Anywhere Manual.
Many industrial papers of the world noticed this work in the highest terms.

For example, The Daily Mail says—"Yet another 'Who's Who' and this time from Japan. The reader is apt at first to regard it as a curiosity, as a sign that the East has now become Western practically almost to the last detail. But 'Who's Who in Japan' is far more than a curiosity; it is a very sound and useful reference book. It is printed in English and contains brief biographies, on the authoritative model of prominent men in Japan.
Mr. Kurihara is a skillful editor and has done his work well."
